The beneficiary information we have on file for you is shown below. Note that one or more beneficiaries is missing information for the following fields: SSN, SSN, SSN.

All members need a Return of Accumulated Deductions beneficiary on file. If a member dies before retirement, the Return of Accumulated Deductions beneficiary will receive a lump sum payment of the accumulated retirement deductions.

Name	Birth Date	Type	Primary	Marital Status	Percent	Telephone	Cell Phone	Address 1	Address 2	City	State	Zip	E-Mail
		Child	No	Single	50						MA
		Child	No	Single	50						MA

Members with at least 2 years of creditable service may select an Option D beneficiary. At the time of selection, the Option D beneficiary must be either the member's spouse, child, sibling, parent or former unmarried spouse. If the member dies before retirement, the Option D beneficiary will receive a lifetime monthly retirement allowance.

Option D is an optional beneficiary selection and will trump the Return of Accumulated Deductions beneficiary. If the same beneficiary is named for both Return of Accumulated Deductions and Option D, the beneficiary can choose either a lump sum or monthly payment.

A spouse of a member married for at least 1 year is automatically the Option D beneficiary, provided they are living together, or apart for justifiable cause, on the member's date of death.

Name	Birth Date	Type	Primary	Marital Status	Percent	Telephone	Cell Phone	Address 1	Address 2	City	State	Zip	E-Mail
		Spouse	Yes	Married	100						MA

To update or correct your beneficiary elections, download a blank beneficiary form here. Fill in this form completely and submit it to the Retirement Office.

Planning for your retirement has never been more important. This page will allow you to estimate your superannuation/regular pension benefit at retirement. Simply indicate when you expect to retire (formatted as MM/DD/YYYY), and click the Generate Pension Estimate link.

Retirement Date: 06/07/2032

Please note the information generated is only an estimate of potential retirement figures and, as such, should not be relied on to make a retirement decision. Further, the use of this system is not intended to replace retirement counseling but, rather, is a tool to assist with your retirement planning.

By using this estimator you indicate you understand and agree with the above disclaimer.

Generate Pension Estimate

The first option is Retirement on a specific date, which allows for input of a date of retirement and returns an estimate of retirement allowance on that date. This option should be used if within three years of retirement. See example below.

The second option is Future retirement date, which allows for a calculation of an estimated retirement at three different ages.

A Calculation Wizard will assist you in completing this section.

Your estimate is based on the following hypothetical information:

- Birth Date: [REDACTED]
- Current Salary: $41,447.00
- Salary Increase: 0%
- Beneficiary Type: Spouse
- Beneficiary Birth Date: [REDACTED]
- Service to be Purchased: 0 Yrs
- Current Service as of 06/30/2020: 4.8333

There are three benefit payment options (A, B & C) available to you when you retire.

- Option A - You would receive your full retirement allowance in monthly payments as long as you live. All allowance payments would cease upon your death and no benefits would be provided for your survivors.
- Option B - You would receive your full retirement allowance in monthly payments as long as you live. Upon your death, any balance that remains in your annuity reserve account would be paid out to a designated beneficiary. Note that your annuity balance is determined by the contributions you have had deducted from your payroll. Typically, once retirement payments start, this annuity balance is drawn down to zero in ten to twelve years. Of course, this time frame can vary significantly from individual to individual.
- Option C - This option allows you to receive one benefit amount during your lifetime. Upon your death, your designated beneficiary would receive 2/3rds of the benefit you were receiving for the remainder of his or her lifetime.
